

How to help conserve water:

- Reduce irrigation times by 50% or more. Since most residential water use during the summer is associated with irrigation, this is the #1 thing you can do.
- Delay hosing down patios, power-washing, and other water-consuming activities.
- Shorten your showers and make attempts to be extra efficient with all of your indoor uses of water.

Visit www.valleywater.org/Water/Water_conservation/index.shtm for more water-saving ideas.